

June 25, 2024

The Keya Paha County Commissioners met Tuesday, June 25th 2024 as advertised. Chairman Nilson called the meeting to order at 10:05 with Commissioner Frederick, Commissioner Elect Tiefenthaler, Tanya Storer, and Clerk Wentworth. Commissioner Tuerk was absent. County Attorney arrived 10 minutes later after court.

Tanya Storer attended the meeting and discussed different topics with the commissioners.

Frederick moved to approve the minutes of the previous meeting as presented, Nilsson seconded.

Voting: Nilson—yes, Tuerk—absent and Frederick—yes. Motion carried.

Under general business Wentworth stated that Applied Connective would be at the courthouse Wednesday to start the network project and replace computers.

After review, Nilson moved and Frederick seconded to accept the proposal to do the downspout extensions on the courthouse from High Plains Trenching, which is owned by Mike Tuerk, and appoint J Frederick to do any required inspections and to monitor the project for any performance issues. High Plains Trenching was available immediately for the project since time is of the essence to prevent more water damage. Voting: Tuerk—absent, Frederick—yes and Nilson—yes. Motion carried.

J. Cook met with the commissioners to update them o different projects the department is dealing with since the recent heavy rains in the last week.
